

NMS 1 – Course Description

The course covers physical diagnostic procedures specific to the neuromusculoskeletal system. It focuses on the head, neck, and upper extremities from a clinical perspective. It accentuates the development of professional demeanor, clinical judgment, patient management, and follow-up.